DETAILED ACTION

Reissue Applications

1. Applicants' arguments and amendments filed June 14, 2004, with respect to the objection under 37 CFR 1.173(b), the rejections under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, 112, first paragraph, the objection under 37 CFR 1.75(c) and the rejection based upon the defective oath have been fully considered and are persuasive. The sole rejection being maintained is the rejection of claims 30, 32 and 34 under 35 USC 251 as an attempt to recapture surrendered subject matter.

2. Claims 30-33 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based.

This rejection was explained in the previous Office action.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicants argue that omitting the limitations of "whereby the amount of Vitamin C is greater than 1000 mg" and "facilitating absorption of NAC across cell membranes" does not constitute recapture because the examiner did not allow the claims after the claims were amended to recite the above language but only allowed the claims after the addition of N-acetyl-d-glucosamine to the claims.

Applicants quote the appropriate portion of the MPEP but seem to have misconstrued the meaning. The new limitations were presented in an attempt to overcome the prior art rejections even though they did not, in and of themselves, make the claims allowable. The fact that the claims needed further limitation to make them allowable does not negate the fact that the limitations were added in an attempt to overcome the prior art rejections. That is all that is necessary to have occurred for the omission of those limitations to be considered an attempt to recapture surrendered subject matter. In other words, submission of those limitations amounted to a surrender of that subject matter.

Conclusion

4. Claims 1-28 and 34 are allowed. Applicants are reminded that the original patent, or a statement as to loss or inaccessibility of the original patent, must be received before this reissue application can be allowed. See 37 CFR 1.178.
5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicants are reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
